NOTE: New Delhi's PCAIT is the only new association which was formed last year and was included for the survey after looking at the scale of activities that it was involved with. Besides, Jamshedpur-based JITA and Goa's GIBA were also included this year for the ranking as they were found to be active in their respective regions. Bhopal Computer Dealers Association (BCDA) was dropped from the list, as the surveyor's did not find the association and its office bearers to be existing at all during the survey.
